

FIELD STUDY CRASH COURSE

Chalmers is offering a 2-day crash course to help prepare students who are interested in doing a Field-Study in their coursework or thesis.

The course has been developed for students interested in applying for Chalmers' Global Mentorship Program (GMP) scholarships.

The course is open to all students, and mandatory for applicants to GMP and especially recommended for students interested in the masters thesis direction Design Activism Beyond Borders and/or Reality Studio.

The 1st course session will be on:

October 25th, 2023 9:00-17:00

the 2nd session, will be held in January, 2024.

SIGN UP HERE

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION Oct. 20th

you will need to log-in to microsoft 360 using your chalmers CID and password

Questions? contact shea.hagy@chalmers.se

NOTE:

- Course will be held in Chalmers ACE building, check CANVAS page after registration for exact room location
- There are no course credits associated with this course

TOPICS

AID

Poverty + Ethics

Partnerships

Safety

Culture

Preparation

Norms and laws

more info on program

GMP

The Dymaxion map departs from the traditional Linear, West-to-east view of the world and shows the worlds' 24 different time zones existing at the same moment in time (bfi.org)